ORAL EXAM JUNE 2020

In the oral exam students will compare two works from a single category – either one book and one film OR two books. Choose whichever category you prefer from the following: Journeys, Duplicity, or Miscellaneous.

Books must be read in English and films viewed in their English version and hard or digital copies with your notes on both must be brought to the oral exam.

You must choose 2 books, or 1 book + 1 film from the same category. You cannot choose the book and its film adaptation. For example, reading and watching The Beach is not an option.

JOURNEYS
1. Book: Paul Bowles, The Sheltering Sky (film directed by Bernardo Bertolucci)
2. Book: Frances Mayes, Under the Tuscan Sun (film directed by Audrey Wells)
3. Book: Bill Bryson, A Walk in the Woods (film directed by Ken Kwapis)
4. Book: Alex Garland, The Beach (film directed by Danny Boyle)

DUPLICITY
1. Book: Patricia Highsmith, The Talented Mr. Ripley (film directed by Anthony Minghella)
2. Book: Daphne Du Maurier, Rebecca (film directed by Alfred Hitchcock)
3. Book: Gillian Flynn, Gone Girl, (film directed by David Fincher)
4. Book: Zoe Heller, Notes on a Scandal, (film by Richard Eyre)
5. Book: Bram Stoker, Dracula (film directed by Francis Ford Coppola)

MISCELLANEOUS
1. Book: Jeanette Winterson, Oranges are Not the Only Fruit (BBC series)
2. Book: Virginia Woolf, Orlando (film directed by Sally Potter)
3. Book: Bill Bryson, Shakespeare: The World as a Stage (film All is True directed by Kenneth Branagh)
4. Book: The Autobiography of Martin Luther King, Jr, compiled & edited by Clayborne Carson (film I am MLK Jr., directed by Barbisan & Hamilton)
5. Book Hayden Herrera, Frida: The Biography of Frida Kahlo (film directed by Julie Taymor)
6. Book: Kate Stewart, A Well-Read Woman: The Life, Loves, and Legacy of Ruth Rappaport
