

Kim Oen jong

From 2009 to the present, she has been teaching Korean at Sapienza University as a Korean teacher. She teaches Korean to first- and second-year students. She earned her undergraduate degree in Teaching Korean as a Foreign Language and her master's degree in Educational Technology from Hanyang University.

Since 2025, she has also been responsible for overseeing the TOPIK (Test of Proficiency in Korean) examinations at Sapienza University.

She has contributed to several publications, including Esercizi di lingua coreana (Oenjoung Kim, Jiji Choi, 2016), a workbook designed for Italian learners of Korean, as well as the Korean-Italian and Italian-Korean dictionary, Dizionario Hoepli Coreano (Antonetta Lucia Bruno, Imsuk Jung, Oenjoung Kim, 2017).

She holds a Certificate of Qualification to Teach Korean as a Foreign Language, issued under Article 19(2) of the Framework Act by the National Institute of the Korean Language, Republic of Korea. In addition, she has completed specialized professional training programs, including the Korean Language Teacher Training Program at Ewha Language Center, Ewha Womans University, the Advanced Training Program for Korean Language Teachers Abroad at Konkuk University, and the Specialist Program for Korean Language Teaching Abroad in South Korea.

Her teaching combines linguistic expertise with innovative pedagogical methods, and she is committed to fostering effective and engaging learning experiences for international students of Korean.
